

THAW DECLARED SANE AS RESULT OF TEST FOR CANADIAN OFFICIALS

"Little Cranky, Naturally, After Trying Experiences," Says Physician After Examination Made for Immigration Department.

COUNSEL SCORES A POINT IN DELAY FOR CHAUFFEUR

Bryan Declines to Act, Holding That Prisoner Is Beyond United States Rights to Interfere.

(Special from a Staff Correspondent of The Evening World.)
SHERBROOKE, Quebec, Aug. 22.—Harry Thaw was examined today and declared to be sane by a Canadian physician retained by the Dominion Immigration Department, Dr. Joseph Emile Noel, who is attending physician at the St. Francis county jail here, where Thaw is confined.

Dr. Noel's findings undoubtedly came as a surprise to the immigration authorities, and they are unwilling to say what effect these may have on their attitude toward Thaw. It is not clear how they can deport as an insane alien a man who has been termed sane by one of their own physicians.

On the other hand, Dr. Noel's examination was made without consultation with other alienists, and it may be held that his opinion cannot be accepted without further support. It is the general belief that when Dr. Noel undertook the examination it was in the expectation of finding Thaw insane.

Dr. Noel was with Thaw forty-five minutes. He put him through a strict examination. It is understood that he left the hospital ward where Thaw is quartered he was asked the opinion.

Dr. Noel said he was asked the opinion. He believed Mr. Thaw is perfectly sane. He replied, "Is he dangerous? Certainly not. How could he be when he is sane? He is what you might term a little cranky on the subject of himself. That is natural when you consider his long confinement and the many legal proceedings through which he has gone."

Dr. Noel has been seeing Thaw almost daily since the latter's arrival here. He is studying him carefully each time he visits him, but it was not until after a careful examination to-day that the physician made up his mind concerning the famous prisoner.

Dr. Noel said he had talked with Thaw on many subjects, though principally concerning his chances of getting out of Canada without being deported to New York.

"It was the grasp he showed of the legal phases of his situation," said the physician, "which has much to do with convincing me of Thaw's sanity. He seems posted on every possible development of the situation, and is positive that he will get out of Canada freely. After listening to his exposition of the subject I am inclined to see with him."

Dr. Noel's examination was made without consultation with other alienists, and it may be held that his opinion cannot be accepted without further support. It is the general belief that when Dr. Noel undertook the examination it was in the expectation of finding Thaw insane.

TAMMANY HOPES TO TRACE BRIBERY RUMORS TO SULZER

Assembly Judiciary Committee Gathers for Its Investigation at City Hall.

FOUR MEMBERS ACCUSED

Alleged to Have Been Bribed to Vote for Impeachment of Governor.

A complete investigation of the charges that four members of the General Assembly were bribed to vote for the impeachment of Gov. Sulzer was promised to-day by the Judiciary Committee of the House, which held a protracted and heated session in the City Hall. It will begin Monday in the Council Chamber of the City Hall, and subpoenas have been issued for James C. Garrison, press agent for the Sulzer-Hennessy combination, and ex-Judge Lynn J. Arnold, President and editor of the Knickerbocker Press of Albany, a Sulzer supporter. These two witnesses have been ordered to produce all the letters they have received from "one Boothby" (a former president of the Anti-Saloon League) and all the other papers they may possess substantiating the charges of bribery.

Ten of the thirteen members of the Tammany Judiciary Committee of the Assembly were present when the committee was called together by Mark Goldberger, a New York attorney, who is chairman. Aaron Levy, majority leader of the Assembly and ex-officio member of the committee, was present as its guiding spirit, although Mr. Goldberg

Petitions for Third Ticket Are All Ready to Be Filed and Candidates Will Be Named for All Offices Down to Alderman.

LOWER TAXATION KEYNOTE OF MCCALLS' PLATFORM

Tom Foley and John McCooley Forced the Mayor Out of a Place on Tammany's Slate.

Mayor Gaynor will be an independent candidate for Mayor with a full ticket for all offices. Edward E. McCall accepted the Tammany offer of nomination for Mayor.

Mayor Gaynor will run as an independent candidate for Mayor nominated by petition, with a complete ticket for all offices, even Aldermen and Assemblymen.

Formal announcement of this decision was made late this afternoon by R. Ross Appleton, Chairman of the Gaynor Nominating Committee after a long conference with the Mayor in the City Hall. Mr. Appleton said:

"It has been definitely decided that Mayor Gaynor will head an independent ticket. Under the emblem of the shovel there will be a complete ticket, extending all the way down the line into the districts. We shall pick out the best and strongest candidates for every office to be filled."

"The petitions for Mayor are all ready to be filed. We have thousands of names—far more than are necessary. It has not been determined just when the formal action will be taken, but we have ample time. Under the law nominations by petition can be made up to near the end of September."

"I cannot say who will be the other candidates under the shovel. I do not know that Mr. Prendergast for Comptroller and Mr. McAneny for President of the Board of Aldermen will be selected on the Mayor's ticket. That will have to be determined later. Just put it down that we are to pick out the very best men to make the strongest ticket in the field."

"Mayor Gaynor will be re-elected. We know that one-half the Republicans will vote for him anyway. His greatest strength will come from the Democrats. In that party, his own party, his friends and supporters are many and they will rally to him in great numbers. He will get half the Republican vote and half the Democratic vote. Because there are more Democrats than Republicans in this town, the percentage of Democratic votes for him will be the larger. The campaign issue will be subways."

GAYNOR ISSUES A STATEMENT.

In answer to a request for a statement of his position made before his candidacy was announced the Mayor sent the following letter:

To the Staff of City Hall Reporters:
I do not know just what to say in answer to your written request.

But there is one thing I can say to the whole city. I have not turned the city or the rentpayers and taxpayers of the city over to the spoilage of any one.

I have not turned them over to the spoilage of any organized band who make that their pursuit in life and whose smug and sleek faces and figures are standing evidence that they wax rich and fat by siphoning by this cunning way and by that the taxes paid into the treasury by their industrious and respectable neighbors.

The rentpayers and taxpayers may now turn themselves and the city over to the spoilage of such people if they want to. I am able to say that I have not done it.

Whether I am to run again depends entirely on the wishes of my fellow citizens. I have had a pretty hard time for four years to hold my own against all comers and against every corrupt influence, but I have been Mayor.
